

Colon Cancer and the Black Community:

Know Your Risk In the Age of COVID-19

WEBINAR

Saturday, September 26, 2020

10:00 am - Noon

FREE Event

Advance online registration is required:

<http://bit.ly/coloncancerwebinar>

For more information :

www.100blackmenva.org • (757) 726-7027

FEATURING

RADM Richardae Araojo, Pharm.D., MS
Director, Office of Minority Health and Health Equity
U.S. Food and Drug Administration

James H. Mixon, MD
Family Medicine,
Primary Care
Riverside Medical Group

Michael Ney, MD
Gastroenterology
Riverside Medical Group

Olumide Ajayeoba, MD
Gastroenterology
Riverside Medical Group

Real Talk!

- Blacks have the shortest survival rate of any racial or ethnic group in the United States for most cancers, and they also have the highest incidence of colorectal cancer.
- Studies show that, with early detection, colon cancer is 90% curable.

100
BLACK MEN
of Virginia Peninsula, Inc

RIVERSIDE

Chadwick Boseman

11.29.1976 – 08.28.2020

Actor Chadwick Boseman, who brought the movie Black Panther and many others to life with his charisma, intensity, and award winning performance, lost his battle with colon cancer.

He had been battling this disease since 2016. He was 43.

See how Riverside Health System can help!

Schedule a Colon Cancer Screening Today!

(757) 316-5777 • www.riversideonline.com/colonscreening